CLASS ODE.

AIR—Because.

ADDIE AGNES BROOKS.

Dear Gould's, we now must say farewell ;
The time has come when we must part ;
Duty bids us elsewhere dwell,
But thou shalt linger in our hearts.
The time with thee has quickly flown,
Our G. A. days are nearly o'er,
And now life's journey we must roam ;
We know not what it has in store.

CHORUS.—Good bye, dear teachers ;
Good bye, dear schoolmates ;
Our memory of thee
Will ever cherished be :
Good bye, dear teachers ;
Good bye, dear schoolmates ;
“ Faithful in all,”
May our motto ever be.

The bell has struck its parting chime ;
The time is quickly drawing nigh ;
Our teachers, schoolmates, all so kind,
Once more we bid you all good bye.
We now must answer to our call ;
Dear Gould's, we'll ever think of thee,
And may thy walls be loved by all,
As by the class of Nineteen-three.

CHORUS.
